Location

We enjoy a quiet farmhouse atmosphere in the middle of the Atlantic forest of the Tijuca National Park. The house is located on the side of the Gávea Golf Club and below the "Pedra da Gávea", a well-known training ground for climbers and "Pedra Bonita", which is the main take-off platform of Rio for free flying (paragliders and hang gliders), both landmarks in Rio and part of a mountains range of magmatic rocks (gneiss and granite) covered with typical subtropical forest: the view is simply stunning ... From the house several species of birds can be observed such as toucans, herons, hawks, hummingbirds, and many others, as well as species of monkeys of various sizes (Pregos, Saguis ...).

During the semester much of the 16 rooms of the house are rented to master and PhD students from the Pontifical Catholic University PUC of Rio. Most of them are foreigners from many nations and continents. Students live in the house for periods of one semester up to 2 to 4 years.
